
1. Church background

How did you hear about our ministry?

Why are you interested in working with us?

Are you a member of the church?

How long have you been going to our church?

What brought you here?

2. Spiritual background

Tell me about your faith journey.

How long have you been a Christian? Talk to me about how you became a Christian.

On a scale from one to ten, what's your relationship with Christ like now and why?

What do you do to keep your spiritual life sharp?

Are you or have you ever been discipled or been in a small group?

Are you comfortable at leading and/or developing Bible studies and other youth activities?

3. Ministry experience

Are you serving with any other ministries?

Have you served in another ministry in the past? If so, why did you stop serving?

What do you believe your spiritual gifts are? What do you love doing? What have other people told you you're good at?

Have you ever worked with our ministry before?

4. Personal information

(Optional) What is your home situation? Are you married? Are there children? Do you have a roommate(s)?

(Optional) If married, are your spouse and/or kids supportive of your commitments?

Where do you work?

Are you reasonably content with your job?

(Optional) Tell me about your relationship with your family growing up.

Students with whom you are in relationship pick up not only what you teach, but also what you model. What one thing in your life would you like them to learn from you? On the flip side, what one thing would you rather they didn't learn from you?

Each of us struggles with a character weakness or a stubborn bad habit. What would you say yours is?

Is there anything in your life currently, or in your past, that we should know about in your ministry to students (alcoholism, drug use, family concerns, child abuse, depression, etc)?

What are your views on the legal use of alcohol, tobacco, etc.?

5. Church Information

Are you willing to have a background check done on you?

Have you looked at the Participant Covenant and rules we hold the youth accountable to?

Have you read the Christian Education Policies and Procedures?

Do you have any questions about any of the Policies or Procedures?
